

SOCIAL LIFE IN AND ABOUT
PHILADELPHIACUPID WILL HAVE A BUSY WEDNESDAY"Best Day of All" Is Still Popular With Bridegroom and Bride the World
Over.

Foremost among the weddings today is that of Miss Marjory Thornton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Grim Thornton, and Dr. William Frederick Moore, which will take place in the Church of St. Luke and the Epiphany, on Thirteenth street near Spruce.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of heavy satin, elaborately trimmed with old family lace. Her long court train will be attached to the gown at the shoulders. Her veil will be lace trimmed and she will carry a shower bouquet.

Miss Mildred K. Hughes will attend Miss Thornton as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Grace Carhart, Miss Evaline Taylor, Miss Mildred M. Jack and Miss Agnes Selin Schoch. Doctor Moore will have Frank Robins Mitchell, of Boston, for his best man, and the ushers will be Thomas P. Firth, Samuel R. Moore, Dr. J. Stewart Lawrence and Dr. James A. Babbitt.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. David M. Steele, rector of the church. A wedding breakfast will be served at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thornton, 1331 Pine street.

BRINTON-HAZARD
A very quiet wedding took place today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Gilpin Hazard, 1091 Park Place, Wilmington, when their daughter, Miss Mary Pusey Hazard, was married to Robert Ferrie Brinton, of West Chester.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore the conventional white satin lace-trimmed gown and tulle veil, edged with orange blossoms.

A small reception for the immediate families and friends followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Brinton will live in West Chester.

CONKLE-ALLEN
A pretty wedding which will take place tonight in the Wayne Presbyterian Church will be that of Miss Elizabeth Mead Allen and Henry Conkley. The ceremony will be performed at 7 o'clock by the Rev. William A. Patton, D. D. Miss Allen will have her sister, Miss Mary C. Allen, as maid of honor, and her little cousin, Miss Margaret Rodenbaugh, will be the flower girl.

Andrew J. Martin will act as best man, and the ushers will be W. Y. C. Dickson, A. Lincoln A. Castle, Earl E. Trout, Walter Pearson, Jr., Charles T. Mather and Harold M. Pearson. After the ceremony a small reception will be given for the bridal party and relatives.

KELLY-MURRAY
A very pretty wedding will take place tonight, at 6 o'clock, at the Church of the Gesù, 15th and Stiles streets, when Miss Sarah Euphrasia Murray, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Murray, of 1509 North 13th street, will be married to Lewis A. Kelly, the Rev. Edward G. Spillane, S. J., will perform the ceremony.

Miss Murray will be gowned in a white lace robe, with a court train of white satin extending from the short waist line. Her veil will be of fine white tulle, caught in place with orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Murray will be attended by Mrs. James J. Kelly as matron of honor; Miss Agnes M. Murray, a sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Miss Elizabeth Kelly and Miss Helen McGrillis, as bridesmaids.

The matron of honor will wear pink crepe de chine, with pearl trimmings, and she will carry pink chrysanthemums. The maid of honor will wear a pink crepe de chine, with a tulle of white Chantilly lace, and will carry pink chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids will wear white lace tunics, and carry pink chrysanthemums. All of the bride's attendants will wear large pink picture hats, trimmed with huge pink bows.

Mr. Kelly will have Joseph L. Kelly as best man, and the ushers will be Benjamin H. Linton, James F. Ryan, James J. Kenney and Joseph M. Murray.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the bride's home, after which the bridal couple will leave for an extended wedding trip. Upon their return, they will live at 1170 Wagner avenue, where they will be at home after November 25.

JEFFERS-FITZMAURICE
The marriage of Miss Anna Fitzmaurice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fitzmaurice, of 307 North Seventeenth street, to George W. Jeffers, of 1805 South Eighteenth street, took place in the Church of the Gesù, Eighteenth and Stiles streets, this morning. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Francis Fitzmaurice, a cousin of the bride, who also sang the Nuptial Mass.

The bride was gowned in white satin, made with a court train, and trimmed with Chantilly lace. The tulle veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Fitzmaurice, who wore a gown of gold lace, and she carried chrysanthemums.

The groom had for his best man James A. Kildea, and the ushers were Thomas J. O'Rourke, John A. Nulty, Edmund Trainer and Thomas M. Golder.

After a wedding breakfast, served for the bridal party and the immediate families, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffers left for an extensive wedding tour. They will be at home at 514 West Sedgwick street, Mount Airy, after December 1.

WOODWARD-COOPER
The wedding of Miss Harriet Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cooper, of 909 South St. Bernard street, to Charles Vanderbilt Woodward, will take place this evening at Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, 48th street and Baltimore avenue, at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Cooper will be given in marriage by her father. She will wear a gown of soft white satin trimmed with duchess lace. Her veil will be made of tulle and will be fastened at the hair with orange blossoms. She will carry an arm bouquet of orchids and gardenias.

Miss Mabel Cooper, sister of the bride, will act as maid of honor. She will wear pink and carry pink snapdragons. The bridesmaids will be Miss Marion Bell, Miss Mildred Thornley, Miss Helen Brown and Miss Margaret Murphy. They will wear gowns of different colors, one yellow, one blue, one peach, one green, and carry flowers to match each gown.

Mr. Woodward will be attended by Louis Peck, of Staunton, Va., as best man, and his ushers will be Lyndsay Vogel, George A. Heller, Walter Reynolds and Harry L. Cooper, a brother of the bride.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. J. Bickley Burns, pastor of the church, and will be followed by a reception at the Roosevelt.

Mrs. Cooper, mother of the bride, will wear white crepe and jet trimmings.
On their return Mr. and Mrs. Woodward will reside at 1100 South Wilton avenue.

ROSENTHAL-STIEFEL
A pretty wedding will take place tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Stiefel, 1811 Diamond street, when their daughter, Miss Leah Stiefel, will become the bride of Marcus H. Rosenthal, of Mount Vernon, O. The bride's father will give her in marriage, and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Berkowitz, of the Rodef Shalom Congregation. Miss Rith Stiefel will attend her sister as maid of honor, and Simon Stiefel, the bride's brother, will be best man. The bride will wear a gown of white satin trimmed with lace. Her lace veil will be arranged with sprays of orange blossoms and she will carry a bouquet of pale purple orchids. A gown of pink crepe de chine will be worn by the maid of honor, who will carry a shower of pink roses. The ceremony will be followed by a reception. On their return from their honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Rosenthal will live in Mount Vernon, and will receive after November 15.

MUSTARD-MORRIS
A wedding of interest to West Philadelphians will take place in Lewes, Del., this afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock, when Miss Mildred Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris, will become the bride of Lewis Mustard, formerly of Lewes, but now living in Brookline, Mass. Miss Morris is well known here, where she has been frequently entertained. Miss Marjorie Menem and Miss Lovina B. Wesley, of West Philadelphia, will be two of the four bridesmaids. On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Mustard will live in Brookline, Mass.

SKAHAN-HENRY
A wedding of prominence in West Philadelphia will take place today in the Church of the Transfiguration, at 55th and Cedar avenue, at 5 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Henry will be married to William A. Skahan. The marriage ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Father Sullivan, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, 5803 Chestnut street.

After an extended tour of the New England States Mr. and Mrs. Skahan will make their home at 110 South Alden street.

KOLB-BROWN
The marriage of Miss Ida Earlene Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Brown, of Haddon Heights, N. J., and Charles Ferdinand Kolb, Jr., of 3221 North Fifteenth street, son of John P. Kolb, of the Bank of Commerce, will take place tonight at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Ida V. Brown, 1239 North Seventeenth street. The Rev. Edwin E. Riley, pastor of the Wallingford Presbyterian Church, will perform the ceremony. The bride will wear a beautiful gown of ivory satin and rare lace. Her tulle veil will be arranged with a garland of orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Ethel Marie Brown, the maid of honor, will wear a pink tulle frock and will carry a basket of pink Killarney roses. The best man will be Senator Max Aron. A reception will follow the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kolb will leave for a tour through New England, arriving at their new home, 542 North Camac street, Logan, after December 15.

SLON-FRONEFELD
A pretty wedding will take place tonight in Christ Church, Media, when Miss Marion Fronefeld will become the bride of Elmer Thomas Sloan. Miss Fronefeld will wear a superb gown of ivory white satin and duchess lace, and she will carry lilies and orchids.

A small breakfast will follow the wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Fronefeld, after which the couple will leave on a wedding tour.

COBB-WETTING
The marriage of Miss Mary Adella Wetting and Gardner Mallick Cobb will take place today in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Newtown. The bride will be given in marriage by her father, Lewis C. Wetting. The gown she will wear is an imported one of faillie silk and lace. There will be no attendants. A small reception, however, will follow the wedding, to which only a few intimate friends have been invited.

HARKINS-FARMER
The marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth Farmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Farmer, and Dr. Leonard Jones Harkins, of Oxford, Pa., will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Episcopal Church of All Saints. Dr. and Mrs. Harkins will leave immediately after the ceremony for the West. They intend making a tour of California, visiting the exposition and returning to Spokane, Wash., where they will make their home. Doctor Harkins has large orchards in Deer Park, Wash.

MCCROSSON-LOVETTE
Miss Edith Veronica Lovette and Edward J. McCrosson were married this morning with a Nuptial Mass at half after 9 in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Sharon Hill. The Rev. Joseph P. Monville officiated.

Miss Lovette was attended by Miss Amelia Marie Conway as maid of honor, and Daniel McGarvey was Mr. McCrosson's best man. There were no bridesmaids nor ushers. A breakfast followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. McCrosson left on a short wedding trip.

THE DRAMA

DOROTHY JARDON
In "Papa's Darling," at the Forrest.

THEATRICAL BAEDEKER

ADELPHI—"A Pair of Sixes," farce by Edward Peple. Two business partners shoot a cold hand, the winner to retain the business, the loser to become his body servant for a year. Delightfully laughable.

BROAD—"Lady Betty Martingale," new comedy by John Luther Long and Frank Statton. A noble lady of 179 marries a man condemned to hang so as to escape her debts. But the man is pardoned.

FORREST—"Papa's Darling," musical comedy by Ivan Cagell. On the excuse of having a mythical son, a professor of moral psychology visits Paris and, well, musically accompanied complications follow.

GARRICK—"The Yellow Ticket," by Michael Morton. Florence Reed, revealed as an actress of superlative ability in a thrilling melodrama of Russia.

KEITH'S—Miss Adeline Genee, petite danseuse, in absolutely enchanting dances.

LITTLE THEATRE—"Arms and the Man." Revival of Bernard Shaw's play. Shaw said war was purgatory—but 'twas before he met the Kaiser.

LYRIC—"Passing Show of 1914," revue from the New York Winter Garden. Frivolous and funny. George Monroe gives original views on "white slavery."

WALNUT—"Way Down East." Nineteen years old—and appealing as ever. Presented by a capable company.

Opera House, the net proceeds to go to the American Red Cross Society.

Laurence Eyre, the author of "The Things That Count," which will be presented at the Adelphi Theatre here early in November, is a Philadelphian and is a prominent member of the Browning Society of this city. Mr. Eyre will be here during the appearance of his play.
